Funky Picnic's food menu just got funkier

Fort Worth brewery adds up-scale appetizers and dinner entrees to their menu

Fort Worth, TX – Funky Picnic Brewery & Café is debuting an expanded food menu on October 26, 2021. The new menu from Chef Josh Rangel and team now includes dinner entrees and up-scale appetizers alongside Funky Picnic's already popular sandwiches and burgers. The new menu also shows a renewed focus on beer pairing suggestions, pairing each food item with Funky Picnic beers brewed in-house by Head Brewer Michael Harper.

"These new menu items really allow us to better showcase the culinary skills of our incredible kitchen team while keeping the most popular sandwiches and burgers that our customers have come to love," says co-founder Samantha Glenn. "Our team really focused on entrees that would pair well with our Funky Picnic beers, whether it is using the beer in the cooking process or having a pint alongside your meal."

The menu includes healthier and heartier entrees, like I'm Chicken You Out, a roasted lemon garlic half-bird, and the Mussels From Brussels beer-steamed mussels that pair perfectly with their Belgian Tripel. Several new vegetarian options, such as the Blueberry Flatbread and Roasted Cauliflower, were added to the appetizer menu, along with non-vegetarian options like the Bacon Bourbon Meatballs that debuted at the 2021 Fort Worth Food and Wine Festival last weekend. Funky Picnic classics such as their massive TABC turkey sandwich, the wildly popular Cluck Norris fried chicken sandwich, and the pimento-cheese topped Funky Burger will remain on the menu.

Visit Funky Picnic today to try out some of these new creations and pair the new menu items with one of their uniquely crafted beers.
